EMSI Receives 2006 ACORD Certification

Scottsdale, AZ – June 8, 2006 – Examination Management Services, Inc. (EMSI) recently received ACORD 2006 Certification in recognition of its data standards adoption. EMSI's transaction certifications include ACORD's General Requirements Order Request, General Requirements Status/Result Transmittal and New Business Submission.

Data standards are a crucial element for efficient and cost-effective communication in the market. The 2006 ACORD Certification focuses on data standard implementations that highlight business value, business opportunities and trading partners. The awards recognize industry leaders who embrace data standards and implement them for their company as well as for the industry.

"Adopting ACORD's data standards enhances our ability to exchange transactions with multiple carriers using the same standard formats," said Chad Gross, EMSI's chief information officer. "Using ACORD's approach with our clients enables us to quickly and efficiently integrate with our customers using sophisticated business to business transaction models."

Based in New York, ACORD (Association for Cooperative Operations Research and Development) is a global, nonprofit insurance association whose mission is to facilitate the development and use of standards for the insurance, reinsurance and related financial services industries. With offices in London as well, ACORD accomplishes its mission by remaining an objective, independent advocate for sharing information among diverse platforms. ACORD Standards and services improve efficiency and expand market reach.
