Kristin Barba Named as Regional Manager

Scottsdale, AZ – May 5, 2006 – Examination Management Services, Inc. (EMSI) announced today that Kristin Barba has joined the Exam & HSD division's management team as a regional manager providing operational support to contract branch offices.

Kristin served as a combination of paramedical director and examiner for the New Jersey contract office for the past seven years and the Boston contract office for the past three years. She brings with her a wealth of experience in customer relationship management, recruitment and training of examiners, office automation and employee relations. Most recently, Kristin has served as a liaison for two major Guardian agencies effectively trouble-shooting and analyzing agency processes to better meet the agency's information needs. She will report to Kim Anderson, vice president of contractor branch offices.

"Kristin will bring contractor experiences, along with examiner and agency views to EMSI." Anderson said. "Her ability to adapt to different personalities and surroundings will help her to create a positive and understanding atmosphere while helping to lead contract offices to performance excellence."
